Ancient Christian Interpretations of Matthew 14:28

Ancient commentators approached this verse through various lenses?literal, allegorical, moral, and mystical?each offering unique insights.

Early Church Fathers like Chrysostom viewed Peter?s act as an actual historical event, emphasizing the human capacity to imitate Christ?s power through faith:

- Chrysostom (c. 347?407): He highlights Peter?s boldness, seeing it as a model of Christian courage. For Chrysostom, Peter's stepping onto the water exemplifies how faith enables believers to transcend natural limitations when they trust in Christ?s authority.
- The Significance of "Come": Chrysostom notes that Jesus? command "Come" is not just an invitation but also a divine empowerment. When Jesus calls, He provides the strength to respond.
